Professional License Reciprocity Disclosure

Arnold's Beauty School curriculum of Cosmetology meets the minimum curriculum requirements required by the State of Tennessee.

For states outside of Tennessee, the institution has not made a determination on whether the programs meet other states' educational/licensure requirements, but has done due diligence to determine the basic reciprocity requirements for the licensing boards of each jurisdiction.

Arnold's Beauty School does not provide training activities out-of-state. All programs offered at the institution lead to professional licensure in the State of Tennessee. Students are required to complete all practical on campus, as we do not enroll strictly distance students who reside in other states.

All students, including those who live in bordering states, are notified prior to enrollment that the education received here at Arnold's Beauty School follows the Tennessee Board of Cosmetology and Barber Examiners Completion of 1,500 hours in practice and theory at a school of Cosmetology including:

Examination Requirements

Written and practical examination. For information on application, registration, examination or fees, contact our testing vendor PSI online at <https://test-takers.psiexams.com/> or by phone, 800-733-9267.

Renewal Requirements

Renewal notices are mailed approximately one month prior to renewal date. Licensee required to submit renewal notice with required fee, if applicable, due by expiration date on license.

Application and Fees

To apply for an initial license please visit www.core.tn.gov. The fee for an initial application is $60.

The Cosmetologist renewal fee is $60.00, as set forth in Rule 0440-1-.13(3) of the Tennessee Rules of Cosmetology.

The renewal form and fee must be submitted to the board office prior to the expiration date listed on the license. If the renewal is not processed prior, there is an additional late fee of $25.00 per license. If the late fee is due, your license is not renewed.

Licenses expired for more than three (3) years become invalid. In order to reinstate an invalid license, the licensee must take reinstatement exams. There are no waivers to this provision.

Information regarding the hour requirements in other states on the Policies page on our website, and recommends that all applicants and students familiarize themselves with the comparison of other states' regulations and hours required for licensure, as applicable.

Additionally, Arnold's Beauty School does not guarantee transferability of hours earned or to any other institution, or transferability of licensure to any other state. However, first getting licensed in your home state may assist in obtaining a license in a different state.

Professional License Reciprocity Chart

State	Accepts Curriculum	Reciprocity Requirements
Alabama	The state allows anyone who completed a program in another state to request licensure.	To transfer a license to Alabama, you must hold a current license in another state. First, you must request a certification of licensure from the state where you are currently licensed to be sent to our board. The certification must be sent directly from your current state to our board. Then, complete the Application for Reciprocity to Alabama. The application can not be processed until the certification of licensure is received from your current state. The application fee is a non-refundable fee of $100. You will be notified if you are required to take the practical examination, or both the written and practical examinations. There is an additional fee of $75 for the written examination, and $130 for the practical examination.
Alaska	Hold a current license in a state with equivalent requirements (1,650 hours).	Verification of Training, Examination, and Licensure sent directly from the state board where you are currently licensed. Please note that your out-of-state license must be current when your Alaska license is issued. A copy of your license is not acceptable. You must have passed a written examination in another state where you have been licensed or are currently licensed. If you did not pass a written examination, it will be necessary for you to do so in Alaska before receiving your license. For work experience, an individual who has less than the required 1,650 hours of hairdresser training may submit proof of full-time work experience averaging at least 32 hours per week. Depending upon the number of hours of training an applicant may have, either one year or two years of full-time work experience will be required. An individual who does not have the required number of hours or sufficient work experience as a hairdresser may obtain the additional hours by attendance at an approved school or an approved apprenticeship program.
Arizona	The state allows anyone who completed a program in another state to request licensure.	If you hold a current, active and in good standing license, this may be the easier way to obtain an Arizona license. Provide a certification of a current license from another state or country including the beginning and ending dates of licensure; i.e., a "license" is renewed at set times. A Certificate/Diploma is not acceptable. Contact your governing board/licensing agency to obtain a verification/certification of licensure. The certification of license must be emailed directly to from the licensing agency to azboard@azboc.gov. At least 1 year of practice in the current state of licensure required within the five years prior to application.
Arkansas	The state allows anyone who completed a program in another state to request licensure.	The applicant must have passed both a written and practical national or Department-approved examination, and must applicant must have a current, valid license issued under the laws of another state; The scope of practice for which the applicant is licensed in another state must be equal to or greater than the particular class of license that the applicant is applying for in the State of Arkansas. Must pass an Arkansas state law exam.
California	The state allows anyone who completed a program in another state to request licensure.	A complete Reciprocity Application and all fees required by the California Board. Proof of a current license issued by another state to practice that meets all of the following requirements: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> It is not revoked, suspended, or otherwise restricted. It is in good standing.
Colorado	The state allows anyone who completed a program in another state with equivalent requirements to request licensure.	If you currently hold an active license in good standing to practice as a barber, cosmetologist, esthetician, hairstylist or nail technician in another state or territory, you may apply for licensure by endorsement.
Connecticut	The state allows anyone who completed a program in another state with equivalent requirements to request licensure.	A license verification form from all states in which the applicant is or has been licensed, current or expired, forwarded to this office from the appropriate authority in which the applicant is or has ever been licensed as a hairdresser/cosmetician. The license verification must document that the applicant was issued a license based on successful completion of a program of education and training and that the applicant was issued the license based on successful completion of an examination.
